Introduction

Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is used to assess the English language proficiency of non-native speakers who want to enrol in universities that use English. Over 13,000 universities and other institutions in more than 160 nations and territories recognise TOEFL.

Following the test, ETS generates official TOEFL score reports that are submitted independently to universities and are valid for two years from the exam date. Before taking the test, you should be familiar with several critical TOEFL exam-related topics, which are all covered in this concise TOEFL ebook.

About TOEFL

The premier English language proficiency test, the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), is administered by the Educational Testing Service (ETS). The TOEFL exam is administered using the TOEFL iBT format. The TOEFL iBT test syllabus, which gauges each of the four communication skills - reading, listening, speaking, and writing—is preferred by educational institutions around the world. The TOEFL exam is approved for employment and immigration purposes as well as for entrance in 160 different countries. The computer-based test is administered more than 170 times annually and can be taken at designated testing centres. The availability of TOEFL test dates and TOEFL test centres can be checked by candidates before registering for the TOEFL exam. A TOEFL test score is valid for two years. TOEFL is currently accepting registrations around the clock. Furthermore, bear in mind that there are no prerequisites for taking the TOEFL exam; rather, candidates must achieve the minimal TOEFL score requirements, both sectional and overall, established by the school to which they are applying.

Why take the TOEFL exam?

The TOEFL is frequently used as part of the admission process to universities for higher education. But the test can also be used for other things, like applying for a student visa or attending a short course or exchange programme.

Who takes the TOEFL exam?

Anyone who wishes to study, work, or immigrate overseas is eligible to take the TOEFL iBT. There are no specific eligibility requirements to take the TOEFL test. The applicant must obtain the minimum sectional or total scores needed by the institute where they wish to apply for admission.

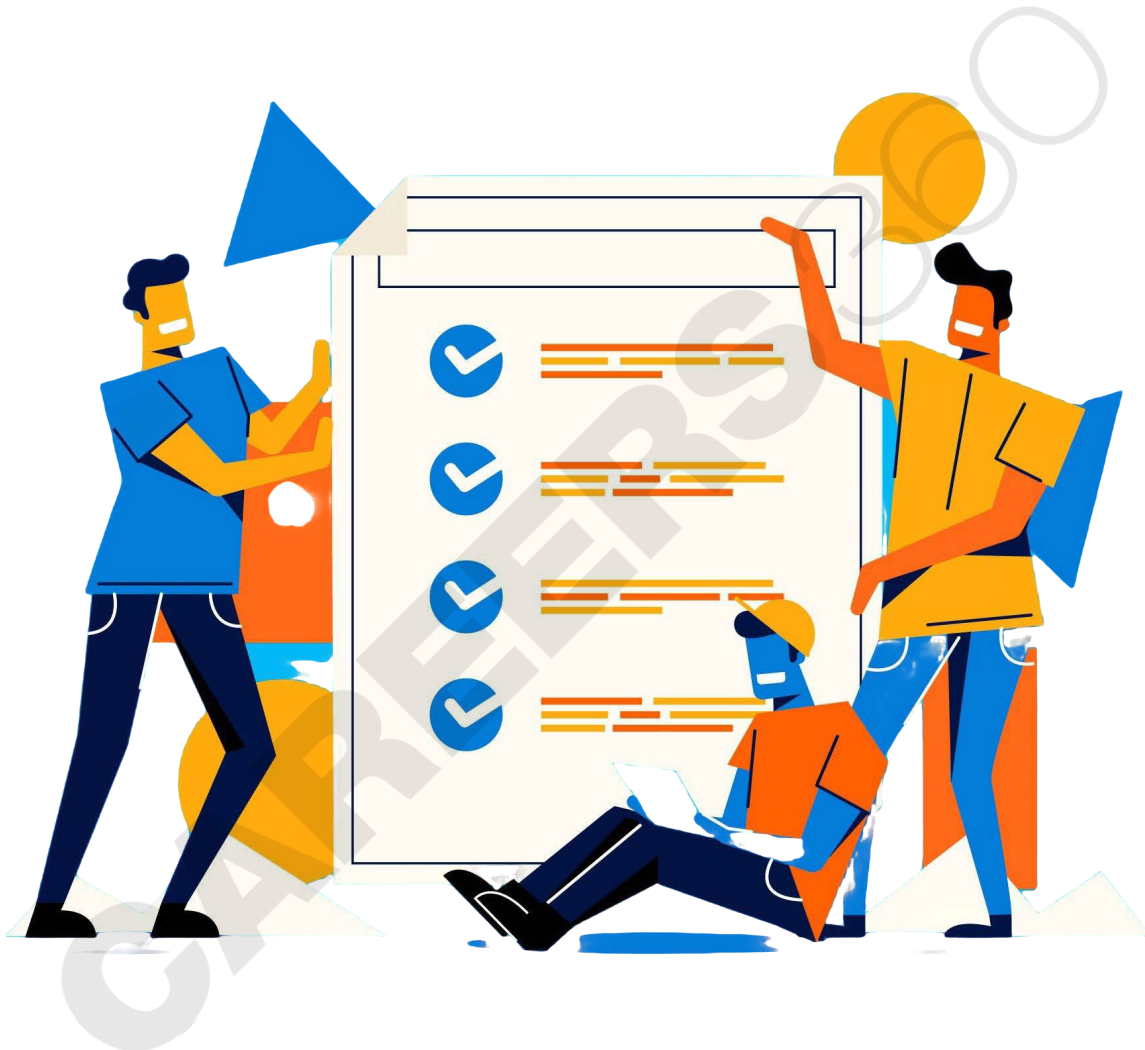

Who accepts the TOEFL scores?

The TOEFL is approved for work permits and college admission at more than 13,000 institutions in 160 nations, including the US, Canada, the UK, Australia, Germany, and France. In Canada, all universities recognise TOEFL results. More than 80% of graduate programmes in the US favour TOEFL scores over results from other English language proficiency exams. 90% of American universities prefer students with high TOEFL scores. In the United Kingdom, all universities recognise TOEFL results. In the US, 9 out of 10 universities use TOEFL scores as an English language proficiency test. Other countries that widely used TOEFL scores include Germany, Australia, and New Zealand.

TOEFL Eligibility Criteria

Since there are no particular TOEFL exam eligibility criteria, candidates who want to appear for the TOEFL exam can register for the same. However, students must check the eligibility criteria of the university and course they are applying for.

TOEFL Registration

The process to fill the TOEFL application form is completely online. Candidates must fill out the TOEFL application form 7 days before the test date, otherwise, an express fee will be charged. The express registration for the TOEFL exam closes 2 days before the test date. Candidates can follow the below-mentioned steps for TOEFL slot booking-

Step 1: Step one of TOEFL registration is to create an ETS TOEFL application account.

1. Students can create a candidate account by giving personal information such as their name, birth date, and gender on the TOEFL login page.
2. Then, include your home and mobile phone numbers along with a valid email account for correspondence. The applicant will also need to set up an account by entering a username and password.

Step 2: Choose a TOEFL test site and a TOEFL exam date in step two.

1. The TOEFL exam will be administered more than 60 times annually at designated testing centres. To choose a convenient test date and test location, click the TEST CENTRE search bar.
2. Select a 2-month window after picking a location to take the TOEFL iBT test, to choose TOEFL exam dates.
3. The two-month period may include any consecutive two months (say, January - February, February - March, March - April, etc.)
4. Based on the choices made, a list of possible TOEFL exam dates and related test centres will be displayed on the screen.
5. To check if there are any seats available in the chosen TOEFL exam dates, click the "Show Test Times and Register" link next to the testing facility.
6. Select a testing site, and

Step 3: Complete the TOEFL exam registration by paying the test fee in India.

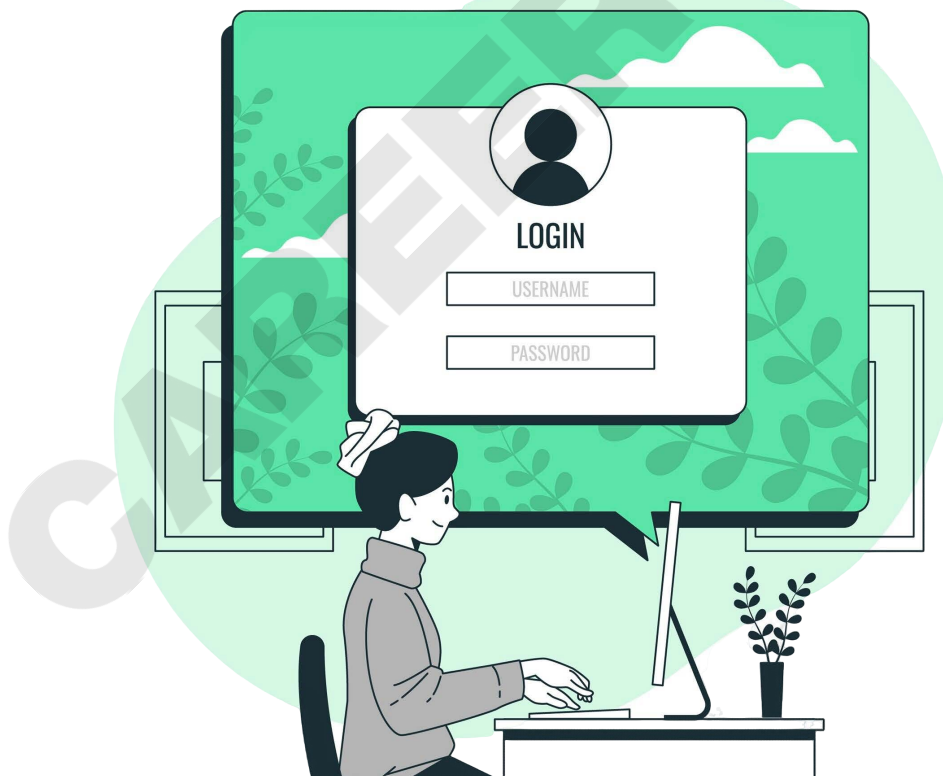

Decide who or what organisation will receive your TOEFL score available. Up to four universities may be selected for free, except for the exam fee. But to add more institutes, a fee of USD 20 which is around Rs. 1,670 per institute has to be paid along with TOEFL fees in India.

TOEFL registration - by phone

To take the TOEFL iBT test in an exam centre located in the US, U.S. Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico or Canada, call at +1-443-751-4862 or 1-800-GO-TOEFL (1-800-468-6335). For any other location, the applicant has to call the Regional Registration Centre (RRC).

TOEFL registration - by mail

1. Download the TOEFL registration form
2. Fill the form using Black/Blue pen ink.
3. Choose a payment method from available options.
4. Send the completed TOEFL application form along with payment receipts to the address mentioned on the form or to the Regional Registration Centre.
5. Completed applications must reach the admission office at least four weeks before the test date.

TOEFL Exam Dates

TOEFL dates are available more than 170 times annually at test centres, while the TOEFL iBT at-home edition dates are available 24 hours a day, 4 days a week. The candidate will be able to select a TOEFL test date online using the search option available on the official ETS website. Also, note that to check available test dates using the search option, registration isn't required.

How to select TOEFL test dates?

Step 1: To search TOEFL test dates, test centre and seat availability - open the official ETS website.

Step 2: A search bar will open.

Step 3: Enter a test location and select two months (any two consecutive months can be selected).

Step 4: Test dates available for this period and for the chosen location will be displayed on the screen.

Step 5: At this stage the candidate will also be able to check the distance of a test location (provided in miles and kilometres form).

Step 6: Once the TOEFL test date has been locked, the candidate can proceed to do the registration.

Note: The search option offers the most up-to-date information regarding test dates and locations, including seat availability.

What points to consider when selecting TOEFL test dates?

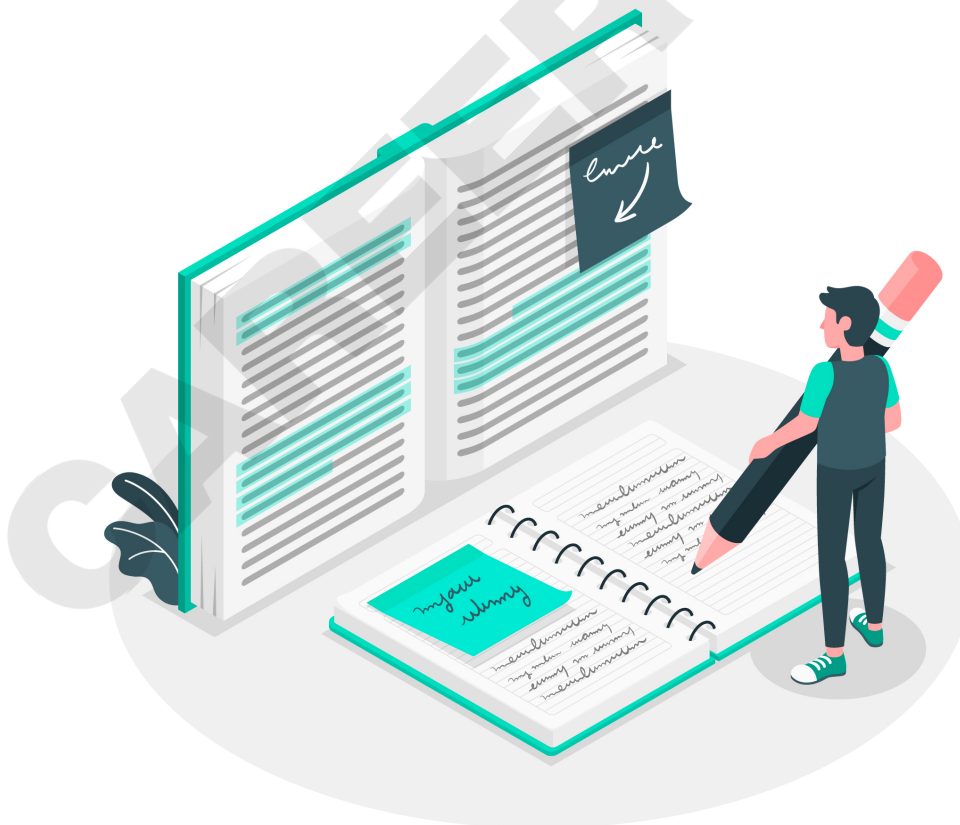

Once the test location has been finalised, the following points have to be considered when choosing a TOEFL test date.

1. The most important thing to consider is your application deadlines.
2. Pick a TOEFL test date that is at least two to three months before the earliest university application deadlines or other deadlines for which you require the TOEFL score.
3. This will leave sufficient time for score reporting, or event retesting if required.

TOEFL Exam Syllabus

ETS, which conducts the TOEFL exam, releases the syllabus of TOEFL for all the four sections - Reading, Writing, Listening and Speaking. Through TOEFL syllabus, candidates can learn about the composition of the test.

- The Reading Section includes 2 passages from university-level textbooks, each approximately 700 words long, with 10 questions per passage.
- The Writing Section meanwhile includes 2 writing tasks - one an Integrated writing task and the other is writing for an academic discussion task.
- The Listening section includes 3 lectures, 3-5 minutes each, some with classroom discussion. There are 6 questions per lecture. Apart from this, listening section also comprises 2 conversations, 3 minutes each with 5 questions per conversation.
- The Speaking section includes four questions/tasks which resemble real-life situations. Question 1 is an independent speaking task, and questions 2 to 4 are integrated speaking tasks.

Listening	0-30
Speaking	0-30
Writing	0-30
Total	0-120

How to Calculate and Understand TOEFL Score?

The scoring pattern of TOEFL is different from other English proficiency tests like PTE and IELTS. While all three English language proficiency tests your understanding of the foreign language, each test has a different test pattern and duration. TOEFL score is measured on a 0–120 scale, i.e. 0–30 TOEFL scores for each section. Although the score range for each of the four test sections (Listening, Reading, Speaking, and Writing) is from 0 to 30, each section has a separate measure and each measure has its own scale.

Understand TOEFL Score Range

Each section in the TOEFL exam has a score range of 0-30. Check the table below to understand the proficiency level of each section.

TOEFL Score Range

Skill	Level
Reading	Advanced (24–30) High-Intermediate (18–23) Low-Intermediate (4–17) Below Low-Intermediate (0–3)
Listening	Advanced (22–30) High-Intermediate (17–21) Low-Intermediate (9–16) Below Low-Intermediate (0–8)
Speaking	Advanced (25–30) High-Intermediate (20–24) Low-Intermediate (16–19) Basic (10–15) Below Basic (0–9)
Writing	Advanced (24–30) High-Intermediate (17–23) Low-Intermediate (13–16) Basic (7–12) Below Basic (0–6)

How to get TOEFL score reviewed?

When your TOEFL scores are out but you are unhappy with the result, you can have your test score reviewed but only for the writing and or speaking section. Apart from this, TOEFL score review is possible only up to 30 days after you take the test. Here are some important points that you must consider before requesting for TOEFL score review:

1. The scores can be reviewed only once.
2. If candidates want both writing and speaking sections reviewed, they must be done at the same time.
3. If there are any changes in your TOEFL scores (lower or higher) after review, the revised scores will become your final scores.
4. TOEFL scores cannot be reviewed if you have already requested that they be sent to an institution or agency.
5. To review, each section costs US$80, which means both sections together cost US$160.
6. Scores are reported online about 3 weeks after your request is received.
