PREPARATION TIPS FOR GK SECTION

1

Know the syllabus: Familiarise yourself with the MH CET Law syllabus to understand the topics that may be covered in the GK section. This will help you organise your study plan.

Read newspapers and magazines: Develop the habit of routinely reading newspapers like The Hindu, The Economic Times, The Indian Express, etc and periodicals to be informed about current affairs and significant occurrences. Concentrate on politics, Economics, Sports, Science, and Technology, as well as local and global news.

23

Follow reliable websites: Follow reliable news websites and portals to get access to the latest information. Websites like GKtoday, The Hindu, The Indian Express and several others like these are popular for their comprehensive news coverage.

Watch news channels: Watch news channels regularly to understand current affairs and important issues. This will also help you improve your knowledge about national and international events.

45

Solve previous years' papers: To comprehend the test format and the kinds of questions asked in the GK portion, solve sample papers. You can use this to find your areas of weakness and strengthen them.

Take online quizzes and mock tests: Take online quizzes and mock tests specifically designed to assess your knowledge and improve your speed and accuracy. This will also help you get accustomed to the exam environment.

67

Use online resources: Utilise online resources like GK websites, PDF study materials, and apps to enhance your GK knowledge. Websites like GKToday, Jagran Josh, and AffairsCloud provide daily updates and study materials for GK preparation.
